SCHOOL MESS MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

School Mess Management Committee of the institution is created with a vision of incorporating the views and ideas of the students in their daily affairs. The committee acts a channel for smooth exchange of views between the administration and the students. It is a student led association comprising both the boys and girls who strive hard to make hostel stay a lifetime and joyous experience in a residential school.

The entire cooking facilities are automated thereby allowing for maximum hygiene control. Both vegetarian and non-vegetarian meals are provided. It is ensured that the diet is wholesome, nutritious and well-balanced. For those requiring a specific temporary diet for medical, reasons, this is also arranged.

The school mess is managed by a committee, the head of which is the Principal, one teacher as the In-charge, four teachers, mess staff as members and two students as secretary. This committee observes that the lack of cooking staff doesn't create any problem in smooth functioning of the mess. The quality of food has improved quite a lot. Efforts are made even to go higher than that and to utilize all the measures available and to ensure improvement in the standards of the mess.
